COVID-19 (coronavirus) information and rules for event visitors

According to the current Hungarian regulations, adults may only attend events by presenting a valid Hungarian COVID card (it is issued by the Hungarian authorities to a person who has received COVID vaccines in Hungary) as well as an identity card.

According to the law, it is mandatory for the organizer of the event to check the existence of the COVID card at the time of entry. Whoever does not have the COVID card, must be refused to enter - regardless of whether the person concerned has a valid ticket. Persons under legal age are allowed to be present at the event only if accompanied by an adult with a valid COVID card. Proof of age is required for over the age of six (identity card, passport, driver's license or student card).

We would like to draw the attention of our esteemed customers to the fact that the rules for entering the event may still change as a result of government measures. Please note that the rules for attending events may change between the time of ticket purchase and the date of the event.

Please also note that each venue may set its own rules in accordance with current legislation, so be sure to check the information posted by the event organizer before heading to the event.

1. These General Terms and Conditions (hereinafter referred to as „GTC”) define the terms and conditions of the use of the service for the purchase of admission tickets between the Service Provider and any natural or legal person using the online system (hereinafter referred to as „the Customer”) as well as any rights and obligations between the Service Provider, the Event Organizer and the Customer.

2. Service Provider operates an online system (hereinafter referred to as „the System”) to primarily promote the purchase of tickets and season tickets (hereinafter referred to as „the Tickets”) for various theatre, music, sport and other events (hereinafter referred to as Event) as well as the purchase of online products and services (vouchers, books, audio recording, parking tickets, etc.). If the rules for the sale of the latter products differ from the general terms and conditions, this GTC expressly indicates this. The Service Provider thus provides the possibility for the Customers to purchase Tickets and other products listed in its System online (hereinafter referred to as "the Service").

3. Service Provider does not participate in the organization and implementation of the Event, its activity and responsibility are limited to the participation in the sale of the Tickets as agent or intermediary. The organizer of the event (hereinafter referred to as “Event Organizer”) is responsible for the delivery of the Event as advertised. Service Provider assumes no responsibility for the conduct of the performers, athletes or other performers or the quality, organization or failure of the performance. Service Provider sells the Tickets and any relevant services for the performances and cultural-artistic productions organized by the Event Organizer as a commissioner, or if such agreement has been made, as an agent or intermediary. If Service Provider sells the Tickets as a commissioner, Customer will receive an invoice for the Tickets from the Service Provider, whereas if Service Provider acts as an intermediary in the sale of the tickets, the invoice for the Ticket will be issued by Event Organizer.

4. Service Provider shall not sell products that require licence and thus needs a permit.
5. To purchase an item from the website any natural person must be 18 years or over. Customer accepts the GTC of the contract relating to the Service and likewise the conditions of the present agreement by clicking the buttons "Pay" or "Order with Obligation to Pay". By concluding the agreement, Customer agrees that they are aware and accept the terms and conditions of the present GTC – and thus especially information contained in section 2 – and furthermore has given consent to the processing of their personal information necessary for the Service in accordance with GTC and the Privacy Policy.
6. The resulting agreement is a written contract and the contract is certified by the Customer's electronically saved purchase data, which the Service Provider shall retain for the time specified in the laws on accounting and taxation. The data entered by the Customer, the data stored in the Service Provider's system, the bank's verification of the transaction and the wording of the General Terms and Conditions together shall form the written contract.
7. The contract between the Parties is in Hungarian.
8. Service Provider informs the Customer and Customer expressly accepts that Service Provider is entitled to unilaterally amend of GTC. If the GTC is modified, Service Provider shall notify Customer by publishing the changes on the Website, at least eight (8) days before the amendment enters into force.

4. Service Provider treats the Customer's personal data in accordance with the rules detailed in INTERTICKET Ltd's Privacy Policy. The Privacy Policy is available in the footer of the purchase interface.

5. Customer has the option to modify or delete the contents of the basket or choose another product on the so-called "Basket" interface of the website. Customer gives information necessary to carry out the transaction on the subsequent, so-called "Payment" page. If it is necessary to modify these details, Customer is able to do so before the so called "basket-time" is up or before clicking the "Pay" or "Order with obligation to pay" buttons. The payment will then be made on the payment service provider's interface (depending on the payment method chosen) (the bank's data interface; the information provided here is not recognized or stored by the Service Provider).

6. Registration allows Customer to give their details only once and not with each purchase. Customer is entitled to prohibit use of such data by choosing to opt out at any time. By using this service, Customer agrees that Service Provider may forward the data to the data processors and to Event Organizer, in accordance with the rules detailed in INTERTICKET Ltd's Privacy Policy, in order to enable Event Organizer to provide entry to the event or to inform the customer of any important aspects relating to the event, such a cancellation, change of time or date, directly and without delay, or to exchange or redeem tickets directly.

8. In connection with the handling and storage of personal data, Service Provider shall act with the utmost care required. However, Service Provider shall not be liable for any damages caused by inevitable attacks suffered despite its best efforts.

IV. The process of buying tickets online

1. Detailed rules on how to buy a ticket are provided in Service Provider's Customer's Guide. Pre-registration is required for any purchase on the Jegy.hu website. In order to avoid misuse of the Customer's data or e-mail address, Service Provider sends an e-mail to the e-mail address provided during the registration requesting Customer to confirm registration. If registration is not confirmed within 48 hours, Service Provider will cancel the registration or the temporary customer account created. By confirming the registration, Customer is granted a valid password for secure access to the customer's account. The customer account is in temporary status until the registration is confirmed and the confirmation is permanently established.

2. In accordance with the provisions of the law, online stores are obliged to confirm Customer's order within 48 hours. In the event that Customer buys a Ticket through the Service Provider's system, the ticket purchase will be carried out in real time, immediately after the payment has been successfully completed and Customer will receive the ordered Tickets in electronic format, immediately. Thus, instead of an order confirmation within 48 hours, Customer will receive a confirmation email (or other electronic message) containing the Ticket itself.

3. If Customer does not receive the purchased tickets within a few minutes of the purchase, the reason is likely to be a connection failure. It is important that in this case Customer should not repeat the transaction but should contact Service Provider's Customer Service (+ 36-1-266-0000) to immediately resolve the problem. At the same time, please note that if confirmation of the order is not received within 48 hours, Customer will be relieved of the obligation, i.e. they will no longer be bound by their order and will not be required to receive and pay for the order.

V. Price, payment and delivery terms

1. Detailed rules regarding payment, methods of payment and acceptance of Tickets are included in Service Provider's Customer Guide.
2. Service Provider assumes no responsibility for any errors during bank payment.
3. The automatic confirmation emails are sent to the email address provided by Customer. Customer shall be liable for any damage resulting from providing incorrect email address.
4. It is the Event Organizer's responsibility to specify the price of the Tickets. Service Provider reserves the right to modify the Tickets' price or the amount of additional costs on Event Organizer's instructions. The right to modify prices does not apply to purchases already in progress.
5. Placing the Ticket in the Basket does not obligate Customer to carry out the purchase. If Customer decides not to purchase the selected Ticket, they can remove the Ticket from the basket at any time or delete the contents of the entire basket; also, the Basket times out after 30 minutes and the contents are automatically deleted (in certain cases the basket time may be shorter or longer which is clearly and continuously indicated on the given webpage).
6. It is not possible to reserve Tickets without payment. Payment and delivery of the electronic Ticket to the email address provided by Customer happens virtually instantaneously, in real time. It is not possible to have an e-Ticket delivered – Service Provider sends these electronically. This Service is automatic.
7. Service Provider stores the electronic documents relating to the purchase at its seat or at the server site used for storing the servers (T-Systems Adatpark, H-1087 Budapest, Asztalos Sándor u. 13.).
8. The Buyer will receive a so-called e-invoice (electronic invoice) from the purchase. An electronic invoice is an invoice which contains the invoice data in the form of electronic signals. The electronic invoice can only be issued, transmitted and stored in electronic form, its paper-based method cannot be used as an original authentic document. The Service Provider or the Event Organizer will automatically send the e-invoice based on the data provided by the Customer, issued by an e-invoice service provider (számlázz.hu, operator: KBOSS.hu Kft., Tax number: 13421739-2-13, company registration number: 13-09-101824, registered office: 2000 Szentendre, Táltos street 22 / b). The electronic invoices are kept by the számlázz.hu at its registered office. By initiating the purchase process, the Customer expressly declares that he/she accepts the e-invoice and the transfer of his/her data to the e-invoice service provider. Please note that the invoices will be handed over online to the tax authority in accordance with the rules of the legislation in force at any given time, and that the invoices cannot be modified retrospectively. The gift voucher is issued in accordance with § 259.15 of the VAT Act. is classified as a money substitute and, as such, is not subject to VAT. The sale of a money substitute asset does not count as a supply of goods and is therefore exempt from the obligation to issue an invoice, provided that an accounting document is issued for the transaction. It is not possible to retrospectively change the details of the issuer's receipt issued when purchasing the gift voucher.

VI. Ticket types; Special rules relating to self-printed tickets (e-ticket) and mobile tickets

1. Ticket types:

Electronic voucher. After the purchase, Service Provider sends a confirmation e-mail to the Customer's e-mail address which contains the voucher as either a clickable link or as an attachment via a so-called landing page. The email contains the details of the purchased Tickets and a voucher identifier. The voucher must be printed and can be exchanged to the printed ticket on the day of the performance in the ticket office at the venue.

E-ticket. After the purchase, Service Provider sends an e-mail to the Customer's e-mail address, which contains the e-ticket as either a clickable link or as an attachment via a so-called landing page. The e-ticket is a full electronic ticket. The number and bar code on the e-ticket contains all the necessary information for electronic access. The bar code can be checked electronically at the event site at the time of entry.

After payment, the delivery of the e-voucher or e-ticket to the e-mail account specified by the Customer is done practically in real time, immediately. No electronic voucher or e-ticket can be delivered; Service Provider will deliver it electronically. The service is automatic.

2. The electronic voucher or e-ticket may be downloaded and printed by the Customer after the successful purchase and these cannot be received either personally in the ticket office or by post. The printed e-ticket can be used if the bar code and code adjacent to the bar code are clearly legible.

3. All consequences and damages resulting from loss, theft, defective printout, copying, duplicating of self-print Tickets are Customer's responsibility. Customer must take the printed e-Ticket to the Event. Customer acknowledges that Event Organizer verifies the e-Ticket's barcode electronically at the Event and immediately invalidates it. Entry is granted by the first validation. Therefore the first Ticket accepted by Event Organizer's entry System as valid will be accepted as a valid Ticket. Any subsequent attempt will be invalid and thus unsuccessful; the Ticket holder may be refused entry irrespective of the fact whether the person showing the invalid Ticket is the person who has originally purchased the e-Ticket. In such cases Service Provider shall be not be liable for compensation.

4. If Event Organizer has made this decision, at certain events, entry may be made available to customers who have a "smartphone" and who show their phone. In this case, Service Provider will deliver the ticket to the application downloaded by the Customer to their phone (so-called electronic wallet).

5. If the page relating to the given event expressly specifies, Service Provider may provide, by request of Customer, for certain events, paper-based, so-called traditional tickets printed on secure paper and have these delivered by courier service at Customer's expense. In this case, this delivery option, the courier service fee and the delivery deadline will be shown on the Basket page (gross amount for the fee). For products sold by the Service Provider, the shipping fee does not depend on the amount or weight.

VII. Withdrawal and cancellation rights

1. Purchase can be cancelled with no further obligation any time before clicking the button "Pay" or "Order with obligation to pay". Based on Paragraph 1 I) of Section 29 of Government Decree 45/2014. (II.26.), Customer is not entitled to exercise its right to withdrawal or cancellation if the Ticket for the Event is for a specific time (definite day, term). In this case Service Provider will be unable to either exchange the Ticket or refund the price of the Ticket (with the exception of cancelled Event).

2. If Customer bought Tickets that are not for a specific time (for example museum tickets that can be used at any time) or if Customer bought other items (e.g. book, publishing, merchandising products, etc.) that are subject to the rules on customers' withdrawal and cancellation rights under Government Decree 45/2014. (II.26.), such rights may be exercised as follows:

- a) In cases specified above the right of withdrawal and cancellation can be exercised within 14 days following the purchase by using the sample declaration of withdrawal and cancellation, included in Annex 2 of this document, or by any other clear statement to this effect.
- b) In case of Tickets that are not for a specific time (for example museum tickets that can be used at any time) in addition to filling out the sample declaration included in Annex 2 of this GTC Customer has to indicate the code included on the e-Ticket / voucher. Customer furthermore has to declare that the Ticket has not been used. It is not necessary to return the Ticket as Service Provider will invalidate it electronically.
- c) If Customer bought anything other than Tickets, that is, merchandising, or has received printed Tickets that are not for a specific time sent via courier, Customer will have to return such items to Service Provider's headquarters (1139 Budapest, Váci út 99. Floor 6.) within 14 (fourteen) days following the notification regarding cancellation or withdrawal. This shall be done at Customer's expense. Customer shall be responsible for any loss of value resulting from any use over the use to determine the nature, characteristics and functionality of the product.
- d) If Customer legitimately cancels the contract, Service Provider shall refund the total amount paid by Customer immediately but no later than 14 (fourteen) days following the notification regarding cancellation or withdrawal. The amount due will be repaid to Customer using the same payment method Customer used during the purchase. In case of a contract relating to the sales of a product Service Provider is entitled to withhold payment until the Customer returns the product or until it is undoubtedly proven that it has been returned by Customer.
- e) Further information on withdrawal and cancellation can be found in Appendix 3 of the present GTC.

VIII. Liability for defects, product warranty

1. Information on liability for defects and product warranty are detailed in Annex 4 of this GTC.

IX. Limitations of Service Provider's Service

1. Customer accepts that due to the characteristics of the Internet, continuous operation of the System may be interrupted without prior knowledge or intention of Service Provider. Therefore, Service Provider does not guarantee the fail-safe and uninterrupted operation of the Service and the related website, or continuous or fail-safe access to the Service.

2. Service Provider is entitled to stop the Service fully or partially without any prior notification, in order to carry out maintenance work on the Service or the related website or for other security considerations.

3. Service Provider shall make every effort to ensure that information received from Event Organizers reach those affected. However, Service Provider takes no responsibility for that information on the Service's website that the Event Organizer input into the System itself or for information provided by Event Organizer was input by Service Provider's employee.

4. Service Provider is only liable for damages caused by its intentional or grossly negligent errors. The extent of liability cannot exceed the value of the transaction.

5. Customer accepts that Service Provider cannot be held liable for any damage or abuse that may arise during or resulting from card payments.

6. Service Provider excludes liability for any loss or damage caused by breach of contract, unlawful act or omission of Customer, Event Organizer or a third party.

X. Rules relating to the Event

1. It is the Event Organizer's responsibility that the Event is run as advertised. The name and other identification details of Organizer are also included on the first page of the Ticket. Customer accepts that Service Provider accepts no responsibility for the running of the Event, the delivery of the performers, sports personalities participating in the Event or for the quality, organization, fulfilment or failure of the performance. Therefore, the contractual relationship relating to the participation at the Event and the obligation to provide the Service is between the individual who shows the Ticket and the Event Organizer. This relationship is governed by the rules specified on the website of the Event and on Event Organizer's official website. Therefore, Service Provider cannot be a party in any dispute between Event Organizer and Customer (or the owner of the Ticket) which is initiated due to the insufficient quality of the Event or because the Event has not been held. The conditions relating to participation, the policies of the Event or the venue housing the Event can be significantly different. Event Organizer is entitled to specify these rules; therefore, Customer may obtain further information on such rules from the Organizer.

2. The Ticket is freely transferable unless the Organizer of the Event decides otherwise, but in this latter case, the event data sheet contains rules for this. Customer accepts that the Ticket shall only be transferred to another person if the new Ticket holder accepts Service Provider's GTC.

3. Unless stated otherwise on the Ticket, Ticket entitles Ticket holder to one-time entry to the Event stated on the Ticket, for one person. Lost, damaged or destroyed Tickets cannot be replaced.

4. The starting time stated on the Ticket is indicative only; the actual starting time may be different.

5. Depending on its type, the Ticket may contain digital and analogue security features which protects the Ticket against fraud. If Service Provider, Event Organizer or the security company working at the venue believes that the safety features on the Ticket are damaged, incomplete, show signs of deliberate damage or they perceive the Ticket to be reproduced or copied, holder of the Ticket may be refused entry to the Event or ordered to leave the venue of the Event. If entry is refused for the above reasons, Customer has no right to claim damages from Service Provider.

6. Certain Tickets entitle only a certain group of users for entry (child Tickets, senior Tickets, professional Tickets etc). Service Provider does not check entitlement at the time of purchase. However, Event Organizer is entitled, via security working at the venue, to check whether the Ticket holder is entitled to use the special admission Ticket. Admission may be refused until Ticket holder is able to justify that they are entitled to use such special Ticket. If entry is refused for the above reasons, Customer or Ticket holder has no right to claim compensation.

7. In certain cases, Tickets only allow access to certain areas within the Event.

8. The Event can only be visited at the visitor's own risk. Although the Event Organizer shall take all reasonable care to ensure the safe running of the Event, Service Provider does not take any responsibility for any potentially irresponsibly behaving visitors. Persons under the influence of drugs, intoxicating substances or other psychedelic substances will be refused admission even if they present a valid Ticket.

9. Video and sound recording may be carried out at the Event in which visitors to the Event may be recorded. The visitor of the Event cannot claim any compensation or payment from Service Provider for such recordings.

10. Visitors may be removed from the Event if they breach terms and conditions, the terms of the Event or Venue, breach any rules or regulations specified by the security staff or other policing staff in order to ensure uninterrupted entertainment of other visitors to the Event. In case of such rejection, Service Provider cannot be held responsible for compensation.

11. In case of the majority of the Events, Event Organizer reserves the right to make justified alterations to the person of the performing artist, participant or performer, or the cast or the Event.

12. In case of an outdoor Event, it is possible for Event Organizers to advertise a reserve day (rain day). If the rain day has been advertised, Event Organizer may decide any time to run the Event on this day. Service Provider shall inform Customers of such decision via the www.Jegy.hu website immediately as soon as it receives this information from Event Organizer. Customer accepts that it is not entitled to right of withdrawal if the Event is run on the so-called rain day. As is customary in this profession, any Event that is interrupted, prematurely ended or delayed due to the weather will be considered as duly held if more than half of the Event has run, or if the Event is delayed by less than 50% of the planned length of the Event or it is interrupted for less than 25% of the length of the Event. Event Organizer is entitled to specify different rules for the so-called rain day or Events partially held.

13. Service Provider shall take all reasonable care to ensure that Customers are informed and the return of the Tickets is facilitated in case the Event is cancelled. However, Customer accepts that in case an Event is cancelled, Event Organizer makes the decision relating to the process, venue and time limits of Ticket redemption, and the realization of such will be the responsibility of the Event Organizer. Service Provider shall promptly publish any such information on the Jegy.hu website as soon as it is officially received from Event Organizer. In the absence of such assignment from Event Organizer to refund Tickets, Service Provider shall not be responsible to refund the price of the Tickets. Refunds will be issued during the timeframe specified by the Event Organizer, but within a maximum of thirty (30) days term of preclusion, by presenting the original Ticket and receipt. Neither the Event Organizer, nor the refunding company shall be responsible to pay for any additional, real or perceived damages or expenses in addition to the actual price of the Ticket. No refunds will be issued in cases other than the cancellation of the Event. In case the Event is cancelled, the legitimacy of the refund of the price of any Services used during the purchase of the Ticket shall be judged on the basis whether such Services have gone into completion by the Provider of such Service. Any handling charge charged is the fee for the use of the ticket purchase system and not included in the ticket price. In case of non-performance, the handling fee will be refunded, unless the non-performance is due to a reason set forth in Section X.14. points.

14. If as a result of war, rebellion, terrorist act, strike, accident, fire, blockade, flood, epidemiological authority decision, measure or proposal, natural disaster, severe energy supply disruption or other unforeseeable and unavoidable obstacle, or the Event Organizer's decision due to the epidemic, which is outside the scope of the Customer or the Service Provider, one of them is unable to fulfill any of its contractual obligations, such person shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred as a result of these events. If an Event is cancelled as a result of the circumstances listed above, the Service Provider will notify the Buyers as soon as possible. After the obstacle is removed, the Event Organizer may, at its own discretion, replace the missed event if the number of events affected by the cancellation, the nature of the obstacle and the number of affected Customers, as well as the capacity available to the Event Organizer allow. In the absence of this, the Service Provider is not obliged to reimburse the purchase price of the ticket.

X/A. Special regulations concerning certain sporting events:

1. In the case of sporting events, the Entry Ticket is a contract between the organizer of the sporting event (hereinafter referred to as the Organizer), in the case of a sporting event held abroad, the domestic sports organization involved in the arrangement of such events and the Purchaser. In case the sporting event is taking place abroad, the Organizer shall determine, together with the domestic sports organization participating in the event organization, the conditions governing the purchase of the Entry Tickets. By paying the price of the Entry Ticket, the Purchaser accepts the terms and conditions set by the Organizer (in the case of a sporting event held abroad, the domestic sports organization participating in the event organization).

2. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Organizer (in the case of a sporting event held abroad, the domestic sports organization participating in the event organization) may make the purchase of the Entry Ticket subject to the possession of a club card, Football Card or other registration.

3. The Purchaser takes note that the ticket purchase is only one of the prerequisites for participating in a sporting event. In addition, the Purchaser is required to comply with the rules of the course published at the venue or on the Internet or otherwise published in connection with the sporting event.

4. The Organizer (in the case of a sporting event organized abroad or away, the domestic sports organization participating in the event organization) may decide that at the time of purchase, the Purchaser receives a so-called voucher instead of the Entry Ticket and hands over the Entry Ticket prior to the match, at a time specified by the Organizer in a location close to the match venue, after verifying the Purchaser's personal information.

5. The Organizer (in the case of sporting event organized in a foreign country or away, the domestic sports organization participating in the event organization) may decide, on the basis of a legal obligation or at its own discretion, that the sporting event can be attended only by a name ticket. In this case, the Entry Ticket contains the Purchaser's name and date of birth for the identification at the time of entry. Name tickets, passes and vouchers are not transferable without modification after they have been issued. The Organizer (in the case of a sporting event organized abroad or away, the domestic sports organization involved in the event organization) may decide to provide a so-called name transcription option for transferring the name Entry Tickets free of charge or in return for payment. Tickets, passes and vouchers purchased personally may be transcribed personally by the ticket holder (whose details appear on the ticket), after a credible proof of identity, at the location specified by the Organizer. Tickets, passes and vouchers purchased online can only be transcribed online and can only be initiated by the person who purchased the ticket, pass or voucher himself. The Organizer will publish detailed information on the name transcription process, including the steps, deadline, and possible limitations of such process.

6. In the case of a sporting event organized in Hungary, if the sporting event has been cancelled, or has been organized by excluding spectators or limiting the number of spectators, the domestic sports organization as the Organizer will refund the price of Entry Ticket within three working days at the cashier of the stadium or at the point of purchase. If the sporting event has been interrupted, the Entry Ticket will be valid to the repeated sporting event. With these exceptions, there is no refund of the Entry Ticket. In the case of sporting events taking place abroad, the refund terms and conditions determined by the foreign Organizer shall apply.

7. If the Organizer has taken out liability insurance for the spectators of the sporting event, the Organizer's liability insurance shall be limited to the person whose personal data are included in the entry document (ticket, pass, etc.), if a sale is made by name. If the Entry Tickets are not named, the liability insurance covers the person who has validly entered with such Entry Ticket.

8. The Organizer may decide that only certain fan card holders can purchase an Entry Ticket for a certain sector, and the Organizer has the right to decide whether to require club card obligation or any other restrictions (eg club card is required, national club card is required, guest club card is required, HFF Football Card is required, purchase code is required, etc.)

Appendix 1.

Agreement with INTERTICKET Ltd. for those purchasing tickets in the ticket office

Attention! Organizers of each event may set different rules. Please inquire at the event organizer!

1. INTERTICKET Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as „Service Provider”) operates an online system (hereinafter referred to as „the System”) to promote the purchase of tickets and season tickets (hereinafter referred to as „the Tickets”) for various theatre, music, sport and other events (hereinafter referred to as Event).
2. The organizer of the event (hereinafter referred to as “Event Organizer”) is responsible for the delivery of the Event as advertised. Service Provider assumes no responsibility for the conduct of the performers, athletes or other performers or the quality, organization or failure of the performance. Service Provider sells the Tickets and any relevant services for the performances and cultural-artistic productions organized by the Event Organizer as a commissioner, or if such agreement has been made, as an agent or intermediary. If Service Provider sells the Tickets as a commissioner, Customer will receive an invoice for the Tickets from the Service Provider, whereas if Service Provider acts as an intermediary in the sale of the tickets, the invoice for the Ticket will be issued by Event Organizer.
3. The Event Organizer`s name and address are included within the description of the Event. The name and other identification details of the Event Organizer are also included on the front of the Ticket.
4. Unless stated otherwise on the Ticket, Ticket entitles Ticket holder to one-time entry to the Event stated on the Ticket, for one person. Lost, damaged or destroyed Tickets cannot be replaced.
5. Certain Tickets entitle only a certain group of users for entry (child Tickets, senior Tickets, professional Tickets etc). Service Provider does not check entitlement at the time of purchase. However, Event Organizer is entitled, via security working at the venue, to check whether the Ticket holder is entitled to use the special admission Ticket. Admission may be refused until Ticket holder is able to justify that they are entitled to use such special Ticket.
6. In certain cases, Tickets only allow access to certain areas within the Event.
7. Depending on its type, Ticket may contain digital and analogue security features which protects the Ticket against fraud. If Service Provider, Event Organizer or the security company working at the venue believes that the safety features on the Ticket are damaged, incomplete, show signs of deliberate damage or they perceive the Ticket to be reproduced or copied, holder of the Ticket may be refused entry to the Event or ordered to leave the venue of the Event. If entry is refused for the above reasons, Customer has no right to claim damages from Service Provider.
8. All consequences and damages resulting from loss, theft, defective printout, copying, duplicating of self-print Tickets are the Customer's responsibility. Customer must take the printed e-Ticket to the Event. Customer acknowledges that Event Organizer verifies the e-Ticket's barcode electronically at the Event and immediately invalidates it. Entry is granted by the first validation. Therefore the first Ticket accepted by Event Organizer's entry System as valid will be accepted as a valid Ticket. Any subsequent attempt will be invalid and thus unsuccessful; the Ticket holder may be refused entry irrespective of the fact whether the person showing the invalid Ticket is the person who has originally purchased the e-Ticket.

9. The Event can only be visited at the visitor's own risk. Although the Event Organizer shall take all reasonable care to ensure the safe running of the Event, Service Provider does not take any responsibility for any potentially irresponsibly behaving visitors. Persons under the influence of drugs, intoxicating substances or other psychedelic substances will be refused admission even if they present a valid Ticket.

10. Video and sound recording may be carried out at the Event in which visitors to the Event may be recorded. The visitor of the Event cannot claim any compensation or payment from Service Provider for such recordings.

11. Visitors may be removed from the Event if they breach terms and conditions, the terms of the Event or Venue, breach any rules or regulations specified by the security staff or other policing staff in order to ensure uninterrupted entertainment of other visitors to the Event. In case of such rejection, Service Provider cannot be held responsible for compensation.

12. In case of the majority of the Events, Event Organizer reserves the right to make justified alterations to the person of the performing artist, participant or performer, or the cast of the Event.

13. In case of an outdoor Event, it is possible for Event Organizers to advertise a reserve day (rain day). If the rain day has been advertised, Event Organizer may decide any time to run the Event on this day. Service Provider shall inform Customers of such decision via the www.Jegy.hu website immediately as soon as it receives this information from Event Organizer. Customer accepts that it is not entitled to right of withdrawal if the Event is run on the so-called rain day.

14. Service Provider shall take all reasonable care to ensure that Customers are informed and the return of the Tickets is facilitated in case the Event is cancelled. However, Customer accepts that in case an Event is cancelled, Event Organizer makes the decision relating to the process, venue and time limits of Ticket redemption, and the realization of such will be the responsibility of the Event Organizer. Service Provider shall promptly publish any such information on the Jegy.hu website as soon as it is officially received from Event Organizer. In the absence of such assignment from Event Organizer to refund Tickets, Service Provider shall not be responsible to refund the price of the Tickets. Refunds will be issued during the timeframe specified by the Event Organizer, but within a maximum of thirty (30) days term of preclusion, by presenting the original Ticket and receipt. Neither the Event Organizer, nor the refunding company shall be responsible to pay for any additional, real or perceived damages or expenses in addition to the actual price of the Ticket.

No refunds will be issued in cases other than the cancellation of the Event.
